Compiled by Esther Straus to supplement four Travel Talks given by the Librarian and illustrated with the stereopticon. As these references must seem somewhat disjointed, it may be well to acknowledge that the talks are purely discursive. If travel is not suggestive, and that along many lines, it loses much charm and value.

SOME FACTS ABOUT THE LIBRARY.

THE CHILDREN'S ROOM.

Hours. The children's room is open on school days from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m. On Saturday, day and during vacation from 8 a. m. to 12 m.

Books. Boys and girls may go to the shelves and choose their own books. Stories are arranged alphabetically under author. Books other than stories are arranged under subject according to the following classification,

Number.	Subject.
00	Conduct, morals, etc.
00	Religion.
00	Government, education, folk-lore.
00	Language.
00	Science, as Astronomy, botany.
00	Useful arts and industries.
00	Fine arts, as painting, photography, music, games.
00	Literature.
00	Travel, history and biography.

Periodicals for young people, which are to be found in the library, will be found on the tables in the room. The St Nicholas, Cassell's Little Folks and Little folks may be borrowed for home use by any card holder.

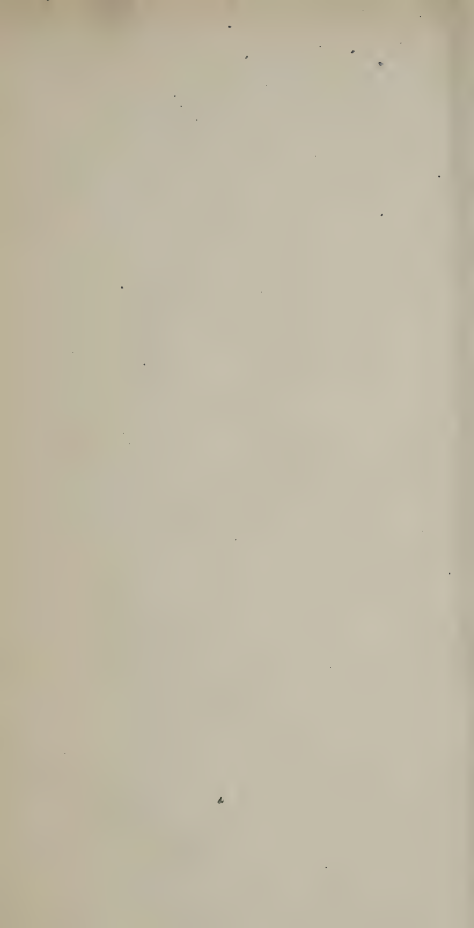

Catalog. There is a card catalog of the books in the room. The catalog should be consulted to get the number of a book, to find what books an author wrote, (See author card, p. 17.) to find who wrote a book, (See title cards, pp. 21.) to find what books belong to a series (See series card p. 29.) to find what books there are on a subject, (See subject cards pp. 13, 27.) to find if the library has a reading list on a subject, (See bibliography card p. 25.). The cards are arranged in the catalog like the words in a dictionary, alphabetically by the first word, not an article, as a, an, and the, (See card p. 23.)

MAIN LIBRARY.

Hours. The Main library is open every day except national holidays excepted, from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Books. Readers may go to the shelves and choose their own books. The same classification is used as in the Children's room. The USEFUL ARTS AND PATENT ROOM, second floor, is apart for all books classed in 500 and 600. The ART ROOMS, third floor, are shelved with books and pictures classed in 700. The STUDY ROOM contains dictionaries, encyclopedias, bound periodicals and works of reference on general subjects not found in the Art rooms and Useful Arts room. The books in the study room are not to be borrowed for home use. These rooms are open to all readers.

Current numbers of periodicals should be called for at the Periodical desk in the Main hall. The NEWS ROOM contains newspapers from the chief cities of the United States as well as several from Europe. Any visitor may read these in the room.
